tions of the officers of the committee. It was the first time in many years that a national chairman had been selected by the democratic party only after a bitter contest had been waged. The choice of Mr. Mack was made possible only after the New York leaders, Charles F. Murphy of Tammany and W. J. Conners, chairman of the democratic state committee, had yielded to the personal desires of Mr.

When the democratic nominee for President reached here today he was strongly in favor of Mr. Mack for the place, but foreign affairs with any close attention. Mr. Bryan frankly told the committee that he wished them to consider all candidates and make an appointment accordingly. There were in the race, besides Mr. Mack, Judge M. J. Wade of Iowa, T. E. Ryan of Wisconsin, former Gov. James E. Campbell of Ohio and Urey Woodson. The sentiment for Mr. Mack, however, steadily grew, but he was confronted with a handicap which had to be removed. The well known opposition of Messrs. Murphy and Conners toward him, because of his rivalry with Mr. Conners for the control of Erie county, stood in the way. The long-distance telephone was put into play, and Mr. Conners, after the situation in the committee was explained to him, declared that he would no longer interpose any objection, but that Mr. Murphy's views first must be obtained. The Tammany leader gave his approval, and with the atmosphere thus cleared Mr. Mack was elected by acclamation.

So pleased was Mr. Bryan that he gave out a statement, in which he openly announces that the appointment is a recognition of the eastern democracy, and that a fight will be made to carry New York. The statement follows:

Bryan Much Gratified. "The action of the committee in its selection of officers," said he, "is very satisfactory. Mr. Mack is a member of the committee, and it has been felt all the pacific the intentions of their rulers. time that the chairman should be taken some weighty reason for going outside, and no such reason appeared. Mr. Mack's appointment is a recognition of the eastern democracy and an announcement that we expect to fight for New York. He is in harmony with our platform, and I can say of him personally that he has been a close and trusted friend in my two former campaigns. One of the strongest arguments in his favor was that he is a successful that amounts to more than $500,000 a year, and the executive ability that he has shown in his work commended him to stability. the committee that made the selection.

> LONDON, July 25 .- Not for a long time has England been disturbed by so grave a warning from an eminent statesman as happened this week, when Lord Cromer gave his ultimate reason for opposing the policy of the present government. He frankly affirmed his belief that while the government was light-heartedly embarking on an old-age pension scheme of enormous expense, the country was rapidly approaching the deadly crisis of European war.

His words have been read throughout Europe with apprehension and alarm. Consols fell sharply when they became conference with William J. Bryan and public. Now his warning is discussed John W. Kern, respectively democratic with the seriousness its importance de-

Lord Cromer's Warning.

It is this excerpt from his speech that is attracting universal attention: "What, in the present condition of Europe, is the main duty which devolves upon the government of this country? . "For my own part I have no sort of hesitation in replying to this question. The main duty is to make provision beimes for a European conflict which may not, improbably, be forced on us before many years have lapsed.

"I am aware that the mass of the people of this country, who do not follow are not alive to the possibility of any such conflict taking place. I say it is the duty of a government, gifted with both patriotism and foresight, which has means of information at its disposal which is not available to the general public, to provide betimes for that danger, authority on foreign affairs, am firmly convinced.

cate ground. It is neither necessary nor desirable that I should state at length my reason for holding this opinion. I will only say that, in order to justify it, it is quite unnecessary to impugn the good faith of those high authorities abroad who constantly reiterate their peaceful intentions. Neither is it necessary to hold that any intentions deliberately hostile to this country exist.

"We are, however, living in times when the influence of individuals, however highly placed, is limited. CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 25.-Brother Charles and all the neighbors were on hand to welcome Mr. Taft when he reached his home town this afternoon, and a big placard at the station entrance, draped with flags, announced that there was "No place like home." Mr. Taft enjoyed it immensely. Between us, I think that his political game is far from being to his liking, anyhow. He does not revel in it as does Mr. Roosevelt. He had been up there in New York all day yesterday meeting the "real thing" in politicians who came to shake his hand, and he was

So when he ambled down the station platform he was smiling like a great big boy home from school. The adulation of his friends was sweet, because there was no political demonstration at all. He had told me previously that, barring the possibility of a base ball game, he was looking forward to a quiet automobile run in the country with Brother Charles and the folks. He is an awfully sweet and wholesome soul. The Lord knows how he is going to get away with those pizenous politicians who will pester him from now

Commencing Monday he will have his hands full with politicians. There is to be a meeting on that day of the state central committee and the executive committee, and several knotty problems are to be solved. Mr. Taft will then take his first lesson in real, downright Ohie politics, and I want to tell you that Ohlo politics corresponds exactly to Gen. Sher-man's definition of war.

International Dissension.

Thoughtful men in England have serious doubts, and these doubts are being expressed in some of the most influential newspapers, whether the Olymp serve any good purpose, whereas theoretically they are supposed to foster international friendships. The result of the meeting just finished has been to create international dissensions and kindle animosities. The relations between the have become so strained that it will be exceedingly difficult for representatives of the two nations to arrange any competitions in the future or carry them out without unpleasantness.

All the American officials and athletes now here are convinced that the United States was robbed of the 400-meter run, while the English public, at any rate, is ners had a pre-arranged plan to keep Halswelle out of first place in that event by fair means or foul.
